

Contents

Preface	7
1. Phil van Schalkwyk	9
Whiteman's blues : South African English literature
2. H.P. van Coller	15
A contextual interpretation of J.M. Coetzee's novel Disgrace
3. Jacques Van Der Elst	39
Guilt, reconciliation and redemption: Disgrace and its South African context
4. Ryszard Bartnik	45
The politics of engagement in J.M. Coetzee's Foe and In the heart of the country
5. Anna Cichón	59
Boyhood. Scenes from Provincial Life and Youth – J.M. Coetzee's autobiographies
6. Ayobami Kehinde	67
African fiction in the service of history: Narrating racial dissonance in J.M. Coetzee's Waiting for the barbarians
7. Liliana Sikorska	87
Displacement and wandering in the context of the medieval concept of homo viator in J.M. Coetzee's Life and times of Michael K
8. Jerzy Koch, Pawel Zajas	111
"They pass each other by, too busy even to wave": J.M. Coetzee and his foreign reviewers	